About the Muskoka Lakes Nursing Station

The Muskoka Lakes Community Health Hub (Nursing Station) is part of the District of Muskoka's primary health plan and has been chosen as a pilot health care model for all of Ontario by the Ministry of Health. The station will include a full-time Nurse Practitioner, Administrative Assistant, and collaborative association with a Physician. These features align with the overall plan for the nursing station, as well as additional space for other health services incorporated into the architectural design. The project is supported by the LHIN due to its focus on expansion of services for health links to rural communities. The Ministry of Health and Long Term Care has provided start-up funding; resulting in plans to open the temporary primary health care facility in the lower level of the Port Carling Library this winter. Building of the permanent facility on the property donated by Brock & Willa Napier is slated for the spring of 2015. <http://www.brockandwillawellnesscentre.com/port-carling-nursing-station.html>
